Joan Van Patten, Linda Lau : Nippon Dolls Playthings before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nippon Dolls Playthings:

I found 1 doll just like 1 I have, and learned what the markings on another of my dolls meant. It's hard to find these dolls in really good condition because the paints weren't fired on a lot of them. I do think some of the values were a little high. I enjoy finding the smaller dolls and cleaning them and dressing them in vintage styles. This book is very informative and even has repair tips. It has many pictures and is helpful in making clothes and new cloth bodies if necessary. I think it was money well spent for my hobby. Update April 16, 2017 I now have many Nippon dolls and can identify them. I bought an uncommon 12" in almost mint condition because I saw it in this book. Love my little Nippons and this book! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very nice book and quick shipper!! By Anna Very nice book-can't say it has "repeats" because it's the first book I've found with Nippon dolls in it. I like it. Rec'd 11-12-14, same day as confirmation indicated it would come between the 15th of November and the 3rd of December. Quick shipper and I appreciate that. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Pauline Stoup Love it!

With over 800 full color photographs and almost 200 catalog pages and vintage ads, Nippon Dolls Playthings will become THE guide for your newest hobby. Valuable historical information is provided, as well as answers to frequently asked questions, and backstamps information. Handy doll and plaything inventory sheets are an added bonus, and accurate pricing information assures collectors that they have correct values. In addition, facts on deciphering Nippon bisque head doll marks are included. The hundreds of photos showcase not only all-bisque dolls, but composition dolls, children's porcelain items, bisque head dolls, and celluloid dolls and toys. 2001 values. AUTHOR BIO: Joan Van Patten has written hundreds of trade paper and magazine articles and is a contributor to Schroeder's Antiques Price Guide. She has been on the board of the International Nippon Collectors Club since its inception. As co-founder of the INCC, she also served as its first president and was a director of the club for many years. Joan edited and published the Nippon Notebook and the INCC Newsletter for five years. REVIEW: This book is the fourth in a five-volume set by noted Indian relics authority Lar Hothem. The hundreds of arrowheads and artifacts featured will be invaluable to collectors, and the book has no repeats from his other volumes.
