Colin H. Roberts, T. C. Skeat : The Birth of the Codex before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Birth of the Codex:

First published in 1954, this book examines the process by which the Codex--the traditional form of the western book--replaced the scroll as the primary vehicle for literature. Drawing upon evidence accumulated in the last thirty years, this revised edition gives fresh insight into the remarkable role the early Christian church played in the transformation of the printed word.
