Dr. Abdul Malek : The Dialectical Universe - Some Reflections on Cosmology before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Dialectical Universe - Some Reflections on Cosmology:

This book opens a novel and unique window to the universe. A harmonious unification of the finite and the infinite, like never before.

About the AuthorAbout the Author: Dr. Malek is a retired Canadian Scientist. He graduated from McGill University in Montreal and now resides in a suburb of that city. Dr. Malek was associated in various capacities with McGill University and the University of Guelph in Canada; Uppsala University and the University of Lund in Sweden; the University of Shiraz in Iran and the University of Dhaka in Bangladesh (the place of his birth). Dr. Malek closely follows the lead of Marx and Engels in his work and advocates a dialectical approach for an understanding of Nature and Life. He draws inspiration from Prof. Halton (Chip) Arp in his endeavour in astrophysics and cosmology.
